

Would you like to be able to bulk send SMS MMS messaging from your PC right now?

SMileS bulk SMS MMS is a distinctively user friendly application that is not only undemanding but accommodating and extremely effective. It provides users with the capability of sending SMS MMS Messages to multiple destinations from your desktop computer within minutes. As an application it is a fantastic tool to enable fast growing and established businesses to communicate their products and services to demographic recipients. Marketers will find this service of particular use.

Is your current Aggregator providing you the value that you need?

SMileS have a thorough background of working with other SMS MMS organisations to provide cost-effective, value for money, highly-available, bespoke CRM & SMS MMS solutions. Whether you are looking for a bulk SMS MMS service, a new direction for your business growth, or just an alternative provider for your hosted premium rate service, SMileS would be delighted to provide you with a bespoke proposition that will fulfill your present and future needs.

Both the SMileS Messenger and SMileS Bespoke CRM Solutions are uniquely competitive, backed by the world's leading mobile content software developer; ANAM. SMileS' unique B2B (business to business) and B2C (business to consumer) solutions are truly incomparable with our competitors.

SMileS is so much more than just your ordinary Bulk SMS MMS provider

- Are you currently sending bulk SMS MMS messages every month?
- Are you currently generating premium rates revenues?
- Do you intend to do either of the above soon?
- Have you thought of considering an alternative host for your own short codes?
- Are you currently unhappy with the level of service that you are receiving?

Then why not contact a member of our sales team now to find out what SMileS can do for you? Email info@smilessms.com or telephone +44 (0)800 083 7845.

As an organisation founded on unsurpassable business ethics, all enquiries and correspondences are treated as completely confidential and SMileS are of course, willing to sign to a non-disclosure agreement if required. SMileS value your trust and understand the potential competitive issues that can arise in these circumstances.
