SMS solutions

“very few schools can offer parents such direct communication routes”

...so this will really set you apart with SMileS you can revolutionise the way in which you communicate with your students or their families

SMileS can help maximise your potential

- gain a better performance in the national league tables
- increase attendance at your school & events
- deliver lower administration costs
- encourage parents to get more involved in their children's education
- help tackle bullying

In the event of an emergency, how long would it take to reach all parents by phone?

SMS based solutions can help you tackle truancy and bullying. They can also reduce administration costs and time, in turn delivering a better performance for your school.

use the power of SMS

benefits

- reduce the number of calls you need to make
- reduce the cost of paper, ink, postage and time
- increase the reach of your messages
- ensure parents actually get schools messages
- encourage easy interaction with parents
- help thwart bullying
- assist in combating truancy
- keep parents informed of things as they happen e.g. when a school trip will arrive back, when detentions are issued etc

“The school was closed for two days recently because of the snow. I used the SMS service to contact parents quickly and easily to let them know. I sent 419 messages on each day and this saved us both time and money on telephone bills. The parents have welcomed the move. We can also receive SMS messages from parents.”
